Dear Parents/Carers,

As part of our Writing curriculum, we will be covering the novel 'Oliver Twist'. We would like our pupils to have the full experience of what it was like to be a child in the Victorian Era. To do this we will be travelling back in time where children sat in rows and had a strict regime.

To enable children to get in to character, we would like your child to dress up in Victorian clothes on Monday 27th November. Please do not mention this to your children as we would like this to be a surprise and want children to experience the day as it's happening.

Any questions please come see me.

Yours sincerely,
Miss Bibi
