Dear Parents,

Thank you for your engagement with the recent trial of our Mathematics homework booklets.

We would like to let you know that, although you may not see regular written feedback in the booklets, teachers are carefully reviewing the work completed. The information gathered is used to inform lesson planning and to identify how best to support your children in class - for example, through targeted interventions where needed.

Thank you for your continued support.

Please also find a link for your feedback.

Kind Regards,

Mrs. Shelina Suleman

Deputy Headteacher & Mathematics Lead
