From the Head Teacher

Dear Parents/Carers,

Welcome Back after the summer holidays! It went so quickly but we're so excited to see all of the children back.

Thank you to all of those parents who attended our expectation meetings this week, another date will be sent out for those who could not make it.

Unfortunately, our Summer Fayre had to be postponed due to bad weather, but, we have reorganised and are excited to see you all at school on Friday 29th September.

Next week, we will be learning how to play Quidditch! Everyone at Stanton Bridge are huge Harry Potter fans and so we cant wait to learn! We have invested in all of the equipment needed and will competing against each other soon!

Please note that we have two teacher training days booked to further our understanding of how metacognition can be used to further your child's understanding and self-regulation. School will be closed to all pupils on Thursday 21st and Friday 22nd September.

We will be running parents sessions related to Metacognition and Thinking skills later in the term.

We feel fortunate to have such a good relationship with our Parents, Carers and Community. It is this partnership that enables your child to get the best from their learning, social experiences and enables you to help support your children at home.

We look forward to working alongside you all over this academic year and watching your children grow and blossom.
