From the Head Teacher

Dear Parents/Carers,

We made it safely to the end of term. It has been a very difficult year with the pandemic dictating the way we have to live and especially the way we have to learn.

To all of our families, I wish you all a safe and happy holiday.

For those who celebrate, Merry Christmas'!

Happy New Year to everyone! We'll see you all back at school on Wednesday 5th January 2022.

*Mrs. Sofina Islam OBE,
Headteacher & NLE*

Attendance Race

Autumn term 2 week 6. Yr 4 Miss Bansal has charged into the lead. Yr 2 Miss Walford and Yr3 Mr Lillicrapp are in second place and both Year 5 classes and one year 6 are in third place at present.

Any class could catch them up and jump into first place, all you need do is work at getting that perfect 100% and you will soon move up the leader board!

Will classes get 100% in the new year?

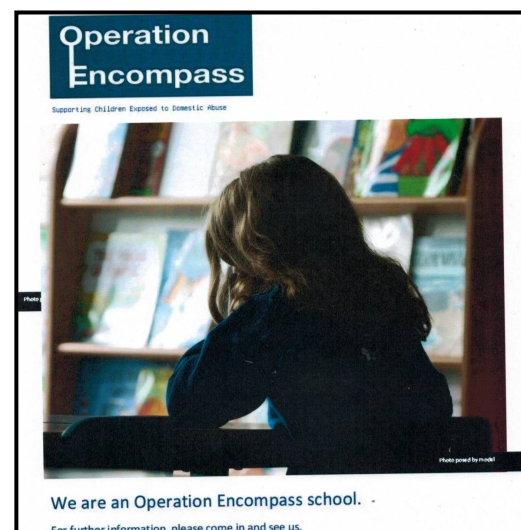

Remember it is up to you to come to school every day and encourage your classmates to do the same!

It's also important not to be late as this could lose your class a spot on the winners podium.
